

DR CONGO: Ethnic Violence

6 Nov 2009 - Clashes between the Enyeale and Munzaya tribes over farming and fishing rights in the village of Dongo in northern Democratic Republic of the Congo have caused civilians to flee into neighboring Republic of Congo.

Map Sources: ESRI, GAUL, Global Discovery, OCHA, UNCS.

Reference: UN News. Tribal clashes uproot over 16,000 civilians in northern DR Congo, reports UN agency. 6 Nov 2009.

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Map created on 6 Nov 2009 - www.reliefweb.int