

During a decade of distinguished service as a UNHCR Goodwill Ambassador, Angelina Jolie has conducted more than 45 field visits to UNHCR operations around the world, becoming an expert on the phenomenon of forced displacement and a tireless advocate on behalf of refugees. It was therefore a great honour for the organization when Ms. Jolie agreed in April 2012 to take on a new, expanded role as Special Envoy of High Commissioner António Guterres.

In her new role, Angelina Jolie will undertake advocacy on behalf of UNHCR, focusing on complex emergencies resulting in large-scale displacement. This will include working to influence opinions and mobilize support in finding solutions for people displaced by conflict, and to assist in building partnerships with civil society, the private sector and the academic community.
