

Refugee Protection and Mixed Migration:

The 10-Point Plan in action

Table of Contents

Introduction	6
Chapter 1 Cooperation among key partners
1 At the national level ..... Practical examples	14
2 At the regional level ..... Practical examples	20
3 At the international level ..... Practical example	25
Chapter 2 Data collection and analysis
1 Defining the objective(s), scope and methodology of data collection ..... Practical examples	34
2 Collecting the data in collaboration with partners, analyzing and using it for policy decisions ..... Practical examples	35
3 Selected international migration databases and datasets.....	39
Chapter 3 Protection-sensitive entry systems
1 Communicating protection obligations to border officials..... Practical examples	48
2 Providing training..... Practical examples	51
3 Establishing dialogue and cooperation arrangements between entry officials and humanitarian actors ..... Practical examples	53
4 Assisting entry officials in identifying and referring asylum-seekers and other persons with specific needs to the responsible authorities..... Practical examples	59
5 Including carriers and other private actors in the protection strategy..... Practical example	62
6 Ensuring cross-border cooperation on protection ..... Practical examples	62
7 Setting up independent monitoring mechanisms ..... Practical examples	63
Chapter 4 Reception arrangements
Reception arrangements provided in centres
1 Location of the reception centre.....	74
2 Administration of the reception centre .....	74
3 Training of reception staff .....	74
4 Conditions in the reception centre .....	74
5 Services provided at the reception centre .....	74
6 Open, semi-open or closed reception centre..... Practical examples	74
Chapter 5 Mechanisms for profiling and referral
1 Profiling .....	88
1.1 Providing information.....	88
1.2 Gathering information .....	88
1.3 Establishing preliminary profile .....	89
Practical examples
2 Referral.....	89
2.1 Counseling.....	89
2.2 Referral.....	90
3 Practical suggestions..... Practical examples	90

Chapter 6 Differentiated processes and procedures
1	Child-protection systems ..... 104 Practical example
2	Procedures for identifying women at risk..... 106 Practical example
3	Procedures to protect victims of trafficking ..... 106 Practical examples
4	Asylum procedures ..... 109
4.1	Tools for managing caseloads..... 109 Practical examples
4.2	Procedural tools ..... 113 Practical examples
Chapter 7 Solutions for refugees
1	Facilitating self-reliance pending a durable solution ..... 126 Practical examples
2	Durable solutions ..... 128
2.1	Voluntary repatriation ..... 128 Practical example
2.2	Local integration..... 129 Practical example
2.3	Resettlement..... 130 Practical examples
3	Solutions based on migration frameworks ..... 133 Practical examples
Chapter 8 Addressing secondary movements
1	Assessing the scope and root causes of secondary movements ..... 144 Practical examples
2	Strengthening protection capacities in countries of first asylum and informing people about the risks of irregular onward movements ..... 146 Practical examples
3	Developing regional and/or bilateral protection approaches..... 148 Practical examples
4	Supporting and monitoring readmission of secondary movers to their first country of asylum ..... 150 Practical examples
Chapter 9 Return arrangements for non-refugees and alternative migration options
1	Return..... 160
1.1	Respecting the principle of non-refoulement in the return process and ensuring return in safety and with dignity..... 160 Practical examples
1.2	Promoting and assisting voluntary and sustainable return..... 163 Practical examples
1.3	Return of people with specific needs ..... 168 Practical examples
1.4	Cooperation between host country and country of origin ..... 169 Practical examples
1.5	Post-return monitoring ..... 171 Practical example
2	Migration (including regularization) options for non-refugees..... 172 Practical examples
Chapter 10 Information strategy
1	Information campaigns ..... 182 Practical examples
2	Awareness-raising and information on human trafficking..... 185 Practical examples
3	Information and sensitization activities in host countries..... 187 Practical examples