

I CAN
SOUTH SUDAN

Refugee programme for children

Bidibidi Refugee Settlement

Zone 1, Uganda

Email: icankids829@gmail.com

www.icansouthsudan.com

Twitter: @ICANSouthSudan3

Wande Naguya Jovana Clement

Accountant

#RefugeeLead #ByRefugees #Yeswecan

OUR PARTNERS

I CAN South Sudan is working in partnership with:

- The Office of the Prime Minister
- The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees
- Community Leaders
- Oxfam IBIS
- Misereor
- #Imatter
- Planting Seeds of Love
- And other humanitarian actors.

Our response towards the effect of COVID-19 pandemic on children

WASH HANDS TO SAVE A CHILD

Distribution of soap to vulnerable children

Our response towards the effect COVID-19 pandemic refugees in Bidibidi

COVID-19 response project

- Distribution of face masks
- Food aid to child headed families
- Distribution of reusable sanitary pads to teenage girls
- Engaging children in playing music
- Dissemination of COVID-19 prevention messages through radio
- Door-to-door assessment on effects of COVID-19 on children
- Planned internet café for youth

Our health response towards the effect of COVID-19 pandemic on refugees in Bidibidi

- Weekly adolescent reproductive health education for adolescent boys and girls to halt increase in child marriage and teenage pregnancies
- Door-to-door visits and counseling for single mothers, HIV/AIDS positive mothers and women with disabilities
- Blue messenger Bicycle Initiative on COVID-19 Project

Our economic response towards the effect of COVID-19 pandemic on refugees in Bidibidi

PEACE BUILDING PROJECT
“Save Lives & the Future now”

The Women Recovery Program

Why involve RLOs in community-based protection?

- Mutual understanding, trust and collaboration among refugees and RLOs.
- RLOs are the first line of response
- RLOs understand the situation of our people and represent their voice.
- Motivated and mobilized to serve community
- Low administrative costs thus most funds benefits the refugees.

What do we want as a RLO?

- Partner with UN, Govt and other partners
- Involvement on decisions affecting refugees
- Support and build capacity of RLOs
- All international NGOs to sign up to the 8 Point Charter for change