

Children and youth and the role of sport during the Covid-19 Pandemic

Terre des hommes
Helping children worldwide.

Socio-ecological impact of COVID-19

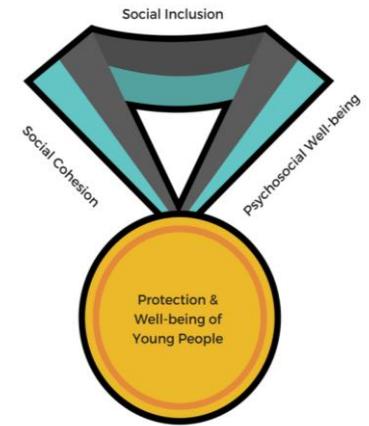

Adapting Child protection intervention

- Community based child protection
 - Risk communication and community engagement at all stages of the outbreak to build trust with communities
 - Situation analysis
 - Information/awareness on COVID 19 / non- discrimination
 - identification and referrals
- Case management
 - Continue as "essential service"
 - Priority given to high risk cases
 - Outreach to children/ youth we work with in other activities and identify need for urgent support
- MHPSS support
 - Community level
 - Child, youth and family level individual/ group support

Sport for protection theory of change

- Safe and supportive environment
 - Outreach
 - Information on COVID & non discrimination
 - Help line and other CP services
 - Advocacy to access services
- Capacity building / life skills & Meaningful engagement
 - Support access to recreational/ physical activities which can be done at home though remote MHPSS support (counselling or MHPSS curriculum)
 - support youths to continue their engagement around family, peers, community
- Mentoring
 - Ongoing remote support

KABADDI TO EMPOWER GIRLS

Using Kabaddi to empower girls at risk of or affected by unsafe migration in West Bengal, India

- Additional Challenges linked in COVID 19 context;
 - Confinement- no more social interaction
 - Migrant workers returning home communities not accepting migrants coming back; incidents of violence
 - Misinformation ;increasing stigma, violence
 - Livelihood- economic struggles

During COVID 19 confinement:

- Recreational kits distributed
- remote counselling
- Case Management
- Meaningful participation and social cohesion

Beneficiaries of sports project are taking leadership :

- sharing information in the communities
- supporting families and children to cope with crisis, supporting families where migrant workers are returning back etc.
- Children from sports project are also joining CovidUnder19 survey
 - the initiative launches a global consultation survey to understand children's experiences of the Covid-19 pandemic and their views on how they wish to get involved. go.qub.ac.uk/CovidUnder19
 - It has been designed by child rights experts and 270 children from 26 countries.
