

Executive Committee's membership by year of admission of members

UNHCR Advisory Committee established in 1951

The following fifteen members

Australia	France	Switzerland
Austria	Germany	Turkey
Belgium	Holy See	United Kingdom
Brazil	Israel	United States
Denmark	Italy	Venezuela, Bolivarian Republic of*

The UNREF Executive Committee established in 1955

The same fifteen members as the Advisory Committee, plus:

Colombia	the Netherlands	as of 1957
Greece	Norway	Canada
Iran, Islamic Republic of

Executive Committee of the High Commissioner's Programme, 1958

The same twenty-one members as the UNREF Executive Committee, plus:

China	as of 1996	as of 2008
Sweden	Ireland	Benin
Tunisia		Luxembourg
Yugoslavia, Socialist Federal Republic of	as of 1997	Montenegro
	Poland	the Republic of North Macedonia*
as of 1963	South Africa
Algeria		as of 2009
Lebanon	as of 1999	Djibouti
Madagascar	Mozambique	Republic of Moldova
Nigeria
Tanzania, United Republic of	as of 2000	as of 2010
	Chile	Slovenia
as of 1967	Côte d'Ivoire
Uganda	Republic of Korea	as of 2011
		Bulgaria
as of 1979	as of 2001	Cameroon
Argentina	Mexico	Congo
Finland		Croatia
Japan	as of 2002	Togo
Lesotho	Ecuador	Turkmenistan
Morocco	Guinea
Nicaragua	New Zealand	as of 2012
Sudan	Serbia	Azerbaijan
Thailand		Rwanda
Democratic Republic of the Congo	as of 2003
	Cyprus	as of 2014
as of 1982	Kenya	Afghanistan
Namibia	Yemen	Belarus
		Czech Republic
as of 1988	as of 2004	Latvia
Pakistan	Egypt	Peru
Somalia	Zambia	Senegal
		Slovakia
as of 1991	as of 2005	as of 2015
Philippines	Ghana	Armenia
	Romania	Chad
as of 1993		Georgia
Ethiopia	as of 2006	Uruguay
Hungary	Jordan
	Portugal	As of 2017
as of 1994		Fiji
Spain	as of 2007	Lithuania
	Estonia	Paraguay
as of 1995	Costa Rica
Bangladesh		As of 2018
India		Zimbabwe
Russian Federation
		As of 2019
		Burkina Faso
		Iceland
		Mali
		Malta
		As of 2021
		Malawi
		Total = 107

* On 17 November 2004, the United Nations was informed that the short name of Venezuela had been changed to Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of).

 In 2002 following the dissolution of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (after the secession of Croatia, Slovenia, The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia and Bosnia and Herzegovina), the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Montenegro and Serbia) was admitted as a new member. On 4 February 2003, the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia informed the United Nations that it had changed its name to Serbia and Montenegro. On 3 June 2006, following the Declaration of Independence adopted by the Republic of Montenegro, the Republic of Serbia (Serbia) informed the United Nations that it would continue the United Nations membership previously held by Serbia and Montenegro.

 On 20 May 1997, the Republic of Zaïre was renamed the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

* On 12 February 2019, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia was renamed the Republic of North Macedonia.