

“ARTS & INCLUSION”

Romantso (Anaxagora 3-5, Athens)

May 10, 2023, 7.00 p.m.

Event Agenda

19.00 - 19.30 Arrival and visit to the arts exhibition of the “Get The Trolls Out” project, which focuses on the theme “Diversity and Religion”

19.30 - 20.00 Presentation of the “Get The Trolls Out” project and screening of the short films produced within the open call under the theme “Diversity & Religion”

20.00 - 20.30

Presentation of the “Video & Storytelling Lab” workshop and screening of the films produced under the workshop

Short statements by the film creators and handing over of participation certificates by Maria Clara Martin, UNHCR Representative in Greece

20.30 - 21.00 Discussion: Cinema as a means of expression and cooperation

Speakers:

The “Video & Storytelling Lab” design and implementation coordinators

Maria Leonida - Film Director, Director of Karpos - Center of Education & Intercultural Communication

Maria Pesli - Film Director, Media artist and Arts facilitator

“Video & Storytelling Lab” participants

Mustafa Noah- born and raised in Iraq, the last five years Mustafa lives in Greece, where he discovered his love for the cinema that allows him to turn his trauma, as he claims, into a healing process. He loves the whole cinematographic process and exploring it continuously.

Olena Soinikova- born and raised in Ukraine, Olena is a content creator and web developer. She enjoys the process of film production, from preparation to final video editing.

Questions and Answers

21.00 - 21.30 Networking, light buffet

Event flow and discussion coordinators: Maria Leonida, Maria Pesli, Diana Kefalogianni