

Side event of the 84th meeting of the Standing Committee

Global Impact of the Ukraine Crisis on Forcibly Displaced and Stateless people and UNHCR Operations

Moderated by Ms. Dominique Hyde, Director, Division of External Relations, UNHCR

Speakers:

Ms. Ritu Shroff, Director, Division of Strategic Planning and Results, UNHCR

Mr. Dominik Bartsch, UNHCR Representative in Jordan

Mr. Charles Mballa, Head of Bureau Protection Service, Eastern Horn of Africa and the Great Lakes, UNHCR

The implications of the war in Ukraine and its impact on neighbouring countries have been covered and analysed in depth in the context of humanitarian and refugee response plans. The ripple effects of the conflict are being felt around the world and include multi-faceted economic, social, and peace and security dimensions.

Drawing on the recent analysis, this session will discuss the impact on forcibly displaced and stateless people, including the degradation of protection space available to them. The event will also highlight the consequences of the ongoing conflict for UNHCR operations globally and the broader international humanitarian environment.
