

Fonds	UNHCR Fonds 13 Records of the High Commissioner
Sub-fonds	Sub-fonds 1 Prince Sadruddin Aga Khan 1958-1991 (predominant 1966-1977)
Scope	The records provide documentation of the work of the High Commissioner during the 1960's and 1970's as the organization was faced with the changing nature of refugee crises throughout the world. The unique importance of the country files can be illustrated in the contents of the "India/Pakistan/Bangladesh events 71-73". UNHCR played a central role in East Pakistani crisis that resulted in the emergence of Bangladesh. Named as Focal Point for the coordination of all UN assistance, the Office of High Commissioner took on responsibilities entirely distinct from its normal duties, including the mobilization of international support, procurement and extensive coordination with the Indian government of Indira Gandhi. The records of this file trace the development of the Focal Point role through briefings, notes and correspondence between the High Commissioner and the Secretary General and his staff in New York. In addition, the file includes correspondence with John Kelly, the UNHCR representative in Dhaka. The records contain a good collection of the many speeches and addresses made as High Commissioner, Chargé de Mission and Special Rapporteur.
