

TEACHING ABOUT REFUGEES: DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

WHO HELPS REFUGEES?

Watch the video here: link

Objective: These questions can be used to set up a debate in class and to evaluate if your pupils have grasped basic concepts on refugees, asylum and migration.

You can choose a “for” group and an “against” group.

The questions can also be used for students to discuss and research findings in groups and write essays on their opinions and research.

Age group: This lesson is suitable for children aged 15 and over and can be used to teach about this subject in any discipline it may be relevant to.

1 : If you were a refugee, what kind of help would be most valuable to you and why?

2 : Whose responsibility should it be to help refugees?

An international organization, a government, a local organization, communities or neighbours?

Why do you think it is their responsibility?

3 : Who might be best placed to provide help to refugees in a camp environment or in an urban environment?

An international organization, a government, a local organization, communities or neighbours?

Why do you think they are best placed to do this?
