LIQUIDATED DAMAGES

All UNHCR contracts are subject to the following clause: UNHCR hereby reserve the right to recover from the seller or deduct moneys due to the seller, all incidental and consequential damages for non-performance.

Late delivery, or dispatch outside the agreed shipping schedule, shall be subject, without notice, to an assessment of liquidated damages equivalent to 0.1 percent of the total contract value per days of part thereof. The assessment will not exceed 10 percent of the contract value. UNHCR will be authorized to deduct this amount from the seller's outstanding invoices, if any. This remedy will be without prejudice to any others that may be available to UNHCR, including cancellation, for the seller's non-performance, breach or violation of any term or condition of the purchase order.

Acceptance of goods delivered late shall not be deemed a waiver of UNHCR's right to hold the seller liable for any loss and damage resulting therefrom, nor shall it act as modification of the seller's obligation to make future deliveries in accordance with the delivery schedule.

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Environmental considerations are considered part of product quality. UNHCR seeks to purchase goods and services which have less negative impact on the environment. Environmental considerations form part of UNHCR's evaluation and selection criteria, which could cover, depending on goods and services to be purchased, their manufacture, transport, packaging, use and disposal. UNHCR particularly favours goods which make the best use of resources, are recyclable or otherwise easily disposed of after use, and do not cause unnecessary damage to the environment during their use and, where considered relevant, during manufacture. Goods or services meeting these criteria are preferred, providing they are competitive in terms of price, delivery times, and other factors. Your company is invited to submit any relevant information in this regard, in support of your bid.
