

Side event of the 89th meeting of the Standing Committee

Making the Business Case for Refugee Hosting areas: How is the private sector engaging in forced displacement contexts?

Moderated by Mr. Raouf Mazou, Assistant High Commissioner for Operations, UNHCR

Speakers:

H.E. Ms. Francisca Elizabeth Mendez Escobar, Ambassador and Permanent Representative of Mexico

Mr. Mamadou Dian Balde, Director, Regional Bureau for East and Horn of Africa and the Great Lakes, UNHCR

Mr. Evgenii Risovich, Head of Investor Relations, Moldova Agroindbank

Mr. Michel Botzung, Head, International Finance Corporation-UNHCR Joint Initiative

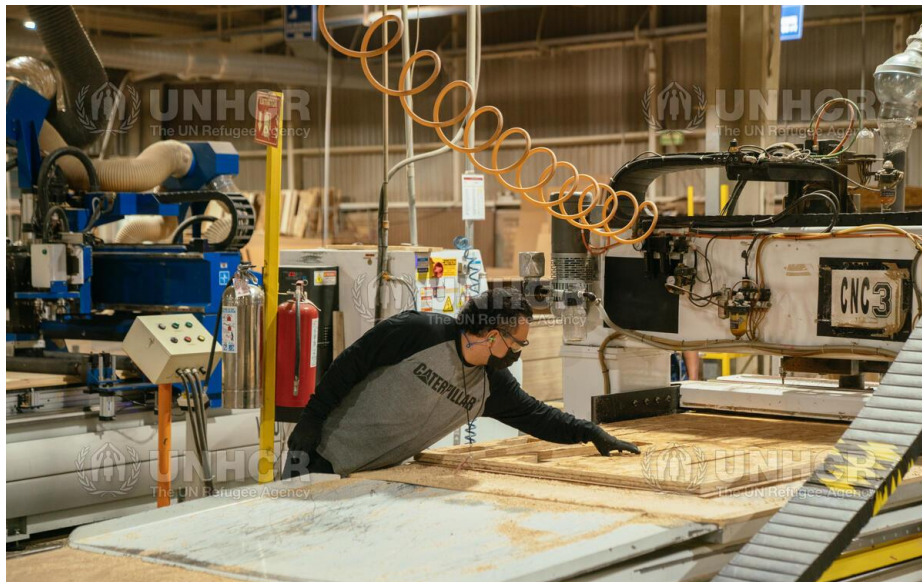

Photo credit: © UNHCR/Ruben Salgado Escudero

This event will present the progress made to address forced displacement challenges with the support of the private sector and showcase concrete interventions across regions and critical sectors such as employability and financial inclusion. This event will also explain the role of international financial institutions, such as the International Finance Corporation, in mobilizing solutions in forced displacement areas.

Thursday, 14 March 2024

08:45-09:45

Tempus, Palais des Nations

Refreshments will be served outside of the room.
Interpretation in English, French and Spanish will be available.

Scan the QR code for background information.