

Date	Place	Activities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mid June until end of June 	Throughout Switzerland	First joint public awareness campaign OSAR – UNHCR. Posters will be on display throughout Switzerland using public transportation system to inform people of the World Refugee Day.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mid June until end of June 	All parts of Liechtenstein	Launching of a public awareness campaign to inform Liechtenstein's people about UNHCR activities and World Refugee Day. Posters will be put along the main roads throughout Liechtenstein
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> June 18 17:45 	Léman Bleu Television	Olivier Delarue will be giving an interview to present UNHCR's activities planned for World Refugee Day 2003.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> June 18 Journée Portes Ouvertes 12:00 until 22:00 Concert with 4Refugees 	Stade de Genève « La Praille »	Official opening of the new stadium. UNHCR will, among other UN agencies, have a huge poster on the wall outside the stadium. The « Journée Portes Ouvertes » is a day of performances, videos and expositions with a sports theme. The project is called Art for the World. Performance by the group "4Refugees". Free entrance.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> June 20 	Atrium UNHCR	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A fundraising classical concert will take place in the UNHCR headquarters building, with the presence of soloist Brigitte Balleys, and two philharmonic orchestras. The Internet connection project will be launched between the Largo refugee camp, Sierra Leone and two Swiss schools (Bern and Sion). Exhibition of paintings by Cambodian artist, Kosal, former refugee in France.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> June 20 	Launching of the first UNHCR DVD	The first UNHCR DVD "Support of refugees" "Au côté des réfugiés" will be introduced during the fund raising concert. The DVD compiles four already produced UNHCR movies, one featuring Angelina Jolie, UNHCR Goodwill Ambassador.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> June 20 	Switzerland and Liechtenstein	The night of the World Refugee Day 2003, buildings throughout Switzerland and Liechtenstein will be illuminated in blue (for example the Jet d'Eau in Geneva, the Cathedral in Bern and Zurich, the house of Government in Liechtenstein). Activity jointly organised with OSAR.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> June 20 	Pont du Mont-Blanc, Geneva	The Pont du Mont-Blanc will be decorated by UNHCR logo flags for one week.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> June 20 	Liechtenstein	As of June 20, 500 pupils in Liechtenstein will be sending written suggestions for improving the refugee situation in Liechtenstein wide range of personalities and relatives.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> June 25 	Musée Ariana	The 2003 Nansen Refugee Award ceremony will be held in Geneva at the Musée Ariana. This year the award is given to Dr. Annalena Tonelli. Mr. Ruud Lubbers, Ms. Barbara Hendricks, UNHCR Goodwill Ambassador, Mr. Pascal Couchepin, President of the Swiss Confederation and Mr. Alberto Achermann, Secretary General of the Swiss Refugee Council, among others, will deliver speeches.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> July 1 	Liechtenstein	On July first, the inauguration of the "kids guernica" will take place. A moving exhibition will be on display with drawings done by children on the theme of peace. The chief of government of Liechtenstein and Olivier Delarue will be delivering speeches for the celebration of the World Refugee Day 2003.