ANNEX A - SOFTWARE SPECIFICATIONS ITB 2023-07

| Software                 | Description                   | Explanation and                     |
|--------------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
|                          | Description 501               | quantities                          |
| Fidelis Elevate(EDR) | Description: 501              | Endpoint protection                 |
|                          |                               | against targeted                    |
|                          |                               | attacks for 500                     |
|                          |                               | licenses (server and                |
|                          |                               | ground infrastructure               |
|                          |                               | + user workstations).               |
|                          | Network: 100Mbit, 30 days | Analysis and detection              |
|                          |                               | of network traffic                  |
|                          |                               | anomalies 100 mb/s,                 |
|                          |                               | 30 days of metadata                 |
|                          |                               | storage.                            |
|                          | EDR 500 (withoutAV)       | A system for building               |
|                          |                               | traps to detect                     |
|                          |                               | potential intruders of              |
|                          |                               | 501 assets (server and              |
|                          |                               | ground infrastructure               |
|                          |                               | + user workstations).               |
| Symantec SMG             | SMD 100                       | Protection of email                 |
|                          |                               | traffic for 100 users.              |
|                          | SWPS 200                      | Web traffic protection              |
|                          |                               | for 200 users.                      |
|                          |                               | Protection against                  |
|                          | SDLP 100+ DBOracle        | confidential                        |
|                          |                               | information leakage                 |
|                          |                               | for 100 users.                      |
|                          | SEP 100                       | Protection of                       |
|                          |                               | workstations                        |
|                          |                               | (antivirus) 100 pieces.             |
| FUDO PAM                 | LIC 100                       | Control of                          |
|                          |                               | administrator actions               |
|                          |                               | when connecting to                  |
|                          |                               | target systems, 100                 |
|                          |                               | critical systems.                   |
|                          |                               | Detection and                       |
| Tanable.sc+              | 500 lps                       |                                     |
|                          |                               | management ofinfrastructure     |
|                          |                               |                                     |
|                          |                               | vulnerabilities (server             |
|                          |                               | and groundinfrastructure + user |
|                          |                               |                                     |
|                          |                               | workstations) 500 ip.               |
| SolarwindsHPO        | HPO 250 nodes                 | Monitoring of critical              |
|                          |                               | infrastructure services             |
|                          |                               | 250 nodes (network                  |
|                          |                               | and server                          |
|                          |                               | infrastructure).                    |
|                          | SRM 200                       | Storage system                      |
|                          |                               | monitoring system for               |
|                          |                               | 200 monitored disks.                |

ANNEX A - SOFTWARE SPECIFICATIONS

ITB 2023-07

|  | DPA: Category1:15, Category 2:14 | Database monitoring,                            |
|--|--|---|
|  |  | a total of 29 databases(SQL 15, Oracle 14). |

License period: From 01 September 2023 to 31 December 2024